

YOU MAY RECOGNIZE DR. SHEILA ADAMS HART
AS A LOS ALTOS HILLS CORPORATE PSYCHOLOGIST.

BUT DID YOU KNOW SHE IS ALSO AN ARTIST?

ART REVELATIONS

Professionally, she's been using her creativity in interpersonal ways, coaching executives toward self-discovery to liberate their innovative potential. Meanwhile, she has always nurtured her own.

Shown here with one of her paintings and her new companions Harry and Potter, Sheila believes each of us has a great capacity for creative insight.

Now inspired to include her art in her professionalism, as Sheila Adams, she is opening Art Revelations, a Fine Arts Venture in San Francisco.

Art Revelations will offer:

- Paintings, sculpture, mixed media and photography for corporate, commercial and residential settings.
- Commissioned, custom art.
- Quarterly corporate and commercial installations.
- Art workshops, One to One, and Creativity workshops for executive teams.

Art Revelations is located on Rhode Island Street, San Francisco, CA. To attend an artist's reception: Call or Email for dates, reservations, and directions: 415-503-1843 or Adams@artrevelations.com

Adams' work is contemporary, intimate and provocative. Of her massive floating bronze piece, titled: "Love without end", she says, "The challenge for both the artist and the psychologist is, to transcend the familiar and expand our capacity for perception, by deepening our insight."
